FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE, BANGALORE.

Circular No. 430—B(ii), dated 24th March 1941.

To

All Drawing Officers in the State.

Sir,

Procedure for posting transactions in the Cash Book.

I have the honour to state that there is no uniformity at present in noting details of salary and contingent payments in the cash books of the several offices. In some offices full details are noted and in some others only one entry is made daily with a remark "as per Acquittance Roll" or "as per Contingent Register Sub-Register Nos" With a view to have a uniform procedure in this respect, the following instructions may be kindly noted for posting the transactions relating to disbursement of pay and contingent charges in the Cash Book.

As the details for the pay disbursed each day are available in the Acquittance Roll, which is preserved for 40 years (vide Article 39-A of the Mysore Civil Account Code, Volume I), the total amount of pay disbursed each day may be posted as one transaction in the Cash Book.

As regards contingent expenditure, the details of which are available in the Contingent Register, which is preserved only for five years (vide Article 39-A, Mysore Civil Account Code, Volume I), in order to know the details of expenditure at a later date, brief particulars for each sub-voucher regarding the name of payee, his bill number and date, if any, and nature of purchase made (details by items as shown in the voucher are not required) should be entered in the Cash Book. It will not do to enter in such cases in the Cash Book only the remark "as per Contingent Registers, etc.," for the reason stated above.

I have the honour to be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

M. VIRARAJA URS,
Comptroller.
